Organizing a Youth Camp

I. The Youth Camp

The entry point to MFC Youth, the youth ministry of Missionary Families of Christ (MFC), is the Youth Camp. The Youth Camp is a three-day (or two-day) stay-in camp that is normally conducted during the summer and semester breaks to officially bring the youth into MFC Youth. The youth camp is open to all youth ages 13-21.

The Youth Camp must not be seen merely as a three-day experience where the Youth can have fun. We should realize that the Youth Camp is not an end in itself. It is not just for amusement that will give the Youth something to do during the summer or semester break, but rather it is the beginning of their lifetime commitment to God.

The Youth Camp is a venue where the youth can form lasting friendships with one another, as well as share ideas and experience in a fun and wholesome environment, where Christian values are openly talked about and actively practiced.

In the Youth Camp, participants will hear about God's great love proclaimed by other youth like them. They will be exposed to other youth who will serve them as speakers, sharers, facilitators, game coordinators, etc. Seeing other young people like themselves speaking of God's great love, taking on leadership roles and serving others will eventually encourage them to do the same.

II. Challenges

For the Youth Camp to be successful, it is important for the team to be aware of the challenges that they will face.

- A. Many participants may go to the Youth Camp because they were forced or pressured to. Many may think that the activities are dull, boring and a complete waste of time. Therefore, it is important to make a great first impression. The first night should look, sound, and feel exciting and interesting to sustain their attention.
- B. It takes a while for the participants to warm up to new faces. Keep in mind that in the Youth Camp, the participants will be meeting a lot of people for the first time. Having a warm and friendly Service Team to greet and accommodate them when they arrive will help them feel at ease and welcome.
- C. Some of the participants will be difficult. Never discount the possibility that some of the participants may have serious addictions to drugs and alcohol. Others may come with a defiant attitude, while others may be hiding serious resentments towards their parents or other people. Therefore, responsible couple coordinators should always be present during the Youth Camp.

- D. Some participants may find it difficult to commit them to the Lord, to MFC Youth, and to the whole new lifestyle offered to them. They may find it difficult to give up a lot of their attachments, some of their friends and what they are already used to do. This poses a challenge for the service team, which must assure them of their support and that there really is nothing to fear.

III. Youth Camp Objectives

To plan effectively, it is important for the service team to understand both the short-term and the long-term objectives of the Youth Camp.

A. Short-term Objectives

1. To help the participants have a personal Jesus Christ experience.
2. To teach the participants how to pray.
3. To help the participants experience healing and reconciliation with the immediate members of their families, especially their parents.
4. To give the participants the opportunity to make new friends in a fun and wholesome environment.
5. To make the youth camp a fun, exciting and life-giving experience to the participants by allowing them to make new friends to people of their age who find joy and fulfilment in serving the Lord.

B. Long-term Objectives

1. To make the youth camp the start of a life-long process of renewal and transformation in the life of the participants.
2. To bring the participants in a supportive environment where they can be sustained in their Christian lives.
3. To sustain and develop the friendships that were established during the Youth Camp.
4. To support their renewed relationships with God, their family and their peers.
5. To develop the talents of these participants and inspire them to use these talents in serving the Lord.
6. To create a positive experience that the participants may look back to and draw strength from throughout their lives.
7. To make them appreciate the Catholic Church and let them recognize that one of the best ways to grow deeper in their relationship with the Lord is by serving in their respective parishes, schools, and campuses.

IV. Important Conditions

Given the above objectives, both short and long-term, it is important to make the following conditions in planning and conducting MFC youth camps.

- A. The youth camp is not an 'end in itself' type of an activity. Hence, it should be conducted with the intention to invite the participants to grow further in the community.
- B. The children of non-MFC members are very much welcome to attend the youth camp. However, there must always be a continuous and steadfast effort to invite the children of MFC members to attend the youth camp.
- C. The suggested venues of youth camps are retreat houses or camp areas where there are fewer distractions to the participants. Nevertheless, the service team should be sensitive to the financial resources of the participants who will be attending the youth camp and determine if such a venue is financially feasible.
 - a. It is possible to use school facilities during semester and summer breaks, and for the food to be catered by MFC members of an area if this will significantly reduce the cost of the youth camp.
 - b. It is possible to raise funds within the MFC chapter or area, to help lessen the youth camp fees of those who do not have the means to pay the full amount in the youth camp.
 - c. The normal rule in any MFC activity applies to the youth camp that no one should be deprived of experiencing the Lord in any official activity just because he or she does not have the means to pay.
- D. Ensure that the participants have their parents' consent in attending the youth camp and that their parents are willing to participate in the youth camp activities, such as writing letters to their children and attending the Parents' Forum, when required. If swimming, hiking and other such outdoor activities are possible, special written consent from the parents of the participants and service team are required. A Parents' Orientation must be conducted before the youth camp, in where the service team may be able to explain the objectives, activities, schedule, rules and provisions within the youth camp, as well as mention areas of concern in which the parents can extend their support. (See appendix for the Parent's Orientation Outline)
- E. Normally, the service team members serving in the youth camp are usually not expected to pay for their accommodations. But, if they have the means, and they would like to help, their payments are welcome.

V. Practical Considerations

- A. The initiative to organize the youth camp starts with the area's MFC Youth couple coordinators.
 - They begin by getting the approval of their MFC area head.
 - They survey their area and come up with a list of prospective participants.

- They work out the details, such as the possible schedule and venues of the youth camp.
- They form the service team among MFC Youth members that will serve in the Youth Camp. The team includes the team leader and his assistant, speakers, facilitators, music ministry, and camp servants.

B. In the youth camp, the couple coordinators allow the team leader and his assistant, as well as the members of the service team, to lead the activities. The couple coordinators stay 'behind the scenes'; ready to provide support, assistance, direction and protection for the service team, when needed.

C. Members of the service team that normally stay in the accommodations with the participants are the couple coordinators, the team leader and his assistant, the camp servants, the facilitators and the music ministry. MFC Youth members who are not part of the service team are not supposed to stay in the accommodations.

Note: It is very important that the facilitators stay in accommodations with the participants because they need to get-to-know and bond with them.

D. During the Baptism of the Holy Spirit activity, the service team may ask the support of other MFC Youth members. However, they will be asked not to stay in the accommodations.

Note: Adults conducting the Baptism pray-over activity is highly discouraged.

E. The parents of the participants are expected to send letters to their children and to come to the Parent-Child Dialogue and Dedication Ceremony on the last day of the youth camp.

F. A No Smoking and No Drinking rule will strictly be enforced for the duration of the camp. Everyone is expected to abide by this rule, including the service team and the couple coordinators.

G. No participant will be allowed to leave the camp without the expressed consent of the parents. If a participant manages to sneak out of the venue, the parents shall be informed immediately.

H. It is important that the youth camp is well documented. Someone may be assigned to document the youth camp including the preparation and the post-activities.

I. At all times, during the camp, there must be a pair of prayer warriors, praying the rosary and interceding for the camp, especially during sessions. The whole service team could take alternate turns in being the assigned prayer warriors.

J. There is no need for unnecessary dramatic effects during the Baptism / Pray-over session. Participants and the service team need not be in white but everyone should dress appropriately. There is no need to turn off the lights of the session hall; in fact, the pray-over session must be conducted in a well-lighted area. Crucifixes, rosaries, and candles need not be placed in pray-over stations, but a crucifix must be placed in the session hall.

K. The couple coordinators or youth servants must accomplish and submit a youth camp completion report after the youth camp. The youth camp completion report contains such details as the total number of youth camp participants; date and venue of the youth camp etc. (See Appendices)

- L. There must be a scheduled post youth camp welcome fellowship for the participants after the youth camp. All the area's MFC Youth members, especially those who were not part of the Youth Camp service team, are invited to the activity / fellowship to welcome and meet the participants.

VI. Service Team Roles and Responsibilities

However, the 2-day youth camp is highly discouraged because the quality of the youth camp will suffer.

VIII. The Youth Camp Sessions

A. Gospel Message

Today when so many ideas abound and so many different philosophies are taught, the youth are often placed in confusing situations. So many different influences around them dictate what to run after, and what to live for. Still in the budding idealism of their young minds, the youth search for the truth that they can believe in and live by. So often, however, young people fall into whatever whim their peers invite them into. Whether it is drugs or drinking, being popular, being 'in' or just simply living for the moment. Still the thirst is there for the truth - their hearts are restless for God.

It is in this situation that the Gospel message should be brought to the youth. A message that speaks of God's love and mercy, that in our sinfulness, He is always willing to forgive us. And, if we come before Him and place our lives at His feet, our restlessness ends and we begin to experience a new life with Him. It is this message, which the talks in the Youth Camp seek to share.

B. Sharing the Message in the Youth Camp

The Gospel message, however, is so great, so vast and so wonderful that our minds can only begin to comprehend it. Moreover, to explain it thoroughly is hard enough for more knowledgeable Christians to do, what more for young people, who in our case, will explain it to other young people as well. In this perspective, we cannot even begin to teach the Gospel. What we can do, however, is to share it. We don't have to be Biblical Scholars or Church Theologians to share the Gospel with others. All we really need to do is look into our lives, recognize God's work and share what we know with conviction. Then, in our limitations, we will see God working through us, in these talks and the activities of the Youth Camp.

C. The Gospel and the Youth Camp Sessions

To be able to share the Gospel message in an orderly and simple way, its different points were divided into five (5) sessions. Each session helps the speaker impart this message effectively. So as not to compromise or give an incomplete Gospel, the sessions include truths, which are basic enough for young people to begin a meaningful journey with God in, their Christian lives. Other teachings may then be imparted later, if the participants decide to join MFC Youth. Here are the basic points or truths with their corresponding topics in the Youth Camp.

Basic Gospel Truth	Youth Camp Session
God's love for mankind; His plan for man's fulness of life with Him	God's Love and His Plan for us
Introduces the ultimate expression of God's love- Jesus Christ	Who is Jesus Christ to me?
Man's sin as he turns away from God's plan	Repentance, Faith, Forgiveness and Healing
Man's response: Accepting God's invitation	God's Gift: The Power of the Holy Spirit
Living as His people	Growing in the Spirit

Some of the sessions in the Youth Camp have more than one basic Gospel truth included. These truths sometimes even overlap across two or three sessions. The sessions are given in this way and order so as to help bring the participants through a process through which they can make a real and sincere decision to live a life pleasing to God through a personal relationship with Jesus Christ by the power of His Holy Spirit.

The speaker should be able to realize that each session, especially the one that he or she will be giving, is part of one message; "God's love reaching out to man and man's choice to respond to this love."

The speakers and Youth Camp service team should understand this flow to be able to place them in the proper position where God can work through what they say and do, in order to effectively help the participants make a decision to know, love and serve Jesus Christ.

D. Final Tips

1. Adults are discouraged from giving the sessions in the Youth Camp.

We have to recognize the fact that, it is easier for young people to be influenced by their peers. No matter how true the message is, and even if the participants thirst for this message, when adults speak to the youth, a natural barrier often stands between them and the young people they are speaking to. These speakers represent to the participants, their parents -parents who may have damaged relationships with their children. As a result adult speakers then begin to lose their effectiveness in sharing the Gospel to the youth.

2. The speakers should share and not preach.

The world needs witnesses, not teachers. Most Youth Camp participants have heard the same message we speak time and time again. But what will make these sessions different is when they realize that what we are saying is true and concrete, because we have actually experienced it.

3. Maintain a light atmosphere.

Feel free to share jokes from time to time, but never to the point of letting the participants forget the truth and importance of your message. Often jokes can even be used as a means to drive at a certain point. In the same way, anecdotes and stories are good means of explaining or stressing certain points in your session. Make use of stories.

The youth like listening to stories. If it is possible to make the points of your outline flow from one story to the next the better. Stories keep the interest of young people and allow them to remember the points that you have made.

4. Speak from the heart with confidence and conviction.

You are speaking of a truth, which all men thirst for, including the youth. Therefore, speak with conviction, because it is him or her who will benefit from what is being said in the Youth Camp more than anyone. Speak of the joy of knowing Christ. Speak of the gift that God wants to give. The gift that you yourself, are beginning to experience; a new life with Christ, knowing what Saint Augustine mentioned is truth for yourself and everyone else, "Our hearts are restless, until we rest in you, Oh God."

5. Read your Bible.

The presence of scriptural verses in the talk requires the speaker to prayerfully reflect on the passages before giving the session. It would be better if these verses are narrated in the speaker's own words. Reading scripture verses word-for-word tends to take away eye contact between you and the participants.

6. Listen to or study other speakers.

This may help give you ideas in giving your session.

7. Undergo the Speaker's Workshop.

Expanded Outline

I. Introduction: The Crazy Dream

Note: The 'Crazy Dream' activity is done so that the speaker may have an amusing way of making the participants realize God's tremendous love for them. Just as the participants may have their own 'crazy dreams' their own nearly impossible hopes of things that are better, God has His own seemingly impossible dream for us, 'a plan for a future and a hope' in union with Him. It is this plan for us that may be used to introduce God's love to the participants.

- A. Ask the participants to think about their greatest ambition or craziest dream. They may write or illustrate it on a piece of paper. Give them 30 seconds to do this. Allow 3-5 persons to share.

- B. Even God has a crazy dream.

(Referring to the 'crazy dreams' of the participants)

All of us have our own crazy dreams, but even God has his own 'crazy dream' for us. I say this, because like many others, our dreams may seem far out, hard to believe. But then again, He is God, and nothing is impossible with Him. Let's see what God's crazy dream is.

This is God's crazy dream, His plan for us, "a plan to give us a future and a hope." (Jeremiah 29:11). This is all because of His great love for us.

1. Plans for your welfare, not for woe. God is always after our wellbeing, our happiness and safety. As God's own, everything that comes from Him is good. When He created us, He created us to last forever.
2. Plans to give you a future full of hope. As uncertain as the future is, God guarantees us that not even a part of it will be in despair and everything in it is positive and desirable.

You may have your own reasons for being here. (E.g. your friends are here, you want to meet new friends, your parents forced you or you are truly seeking God). I believe God brought you here, to hear about His love, and His plan in your life.

II. God's Plan

Part of the beautiful plan of God in our lives is creating us. There is no other reason for creation than love. God has overflowing love that is why He created us.

Since we are apart from other creation, we are special to Him. Man was first in conception but last in creation. This is how special we are. God loves us so much that He prepared everything first so that we may live.

Our names were already written in the palm of His hands. We are created in His own image and likeness (Genesis 1:27) – a verse we often forget; only man is made in his image and likeness.

A. Man Chose Other Things

You may be asking, "If God loves us so much, why are our lives and situations so different from what He says are His plans for us?"

1. Show the disparity between God's plan (cf. Isaiah 65:17 25) and the situation around us.
 - a. On a personal scale: There are broken families, drug addictions, teenage pregnancies, etc.
 - b. On a local scale: There are street crimes, law offenders and corruption.
 - c. On a larger scale: There are countries at war and in famine.

2. We experience these sufferings because we choose to.

When our first parents chose to disobey, and rebel against God's commands, they chose to turn away from God the source of all life. In doing so, they chose death, and suffering. From the moment this happened, our world that was full of life and blessing began to experience difficulties, pain, suffering, and even death (cf. Genesis 3:1-21).

Even today, whenever we choose to go against God, (or the authorities He has placed over us, e.g. parents, government, and school authorities), we continue to choose the suffering and death that our first parents chose (cf. Romans 6:23).

Note: Mention specific experiences to bring your point across.

B. God's Shows His Power and Might

But God did not end it at that. God wants us to experience the fullness of life but we continue to follow our own preferences. By choosing to turn away from this promise, God could have just as well chosen to turn away from us, destroy us as we deserve, and create a more faithful people who would gladly accept His love and the life that He offers. Instead, He decided that His love and His mercy should prevail.

1. He began by sending His prophets
2. Finally, He chose to send His only Son to die for us because He did not want to see us suffer in our sin and die forever (cf. John 3:16). The speaker at this time shows the video "The Bridge".

Note: Make use of the diagram to illustrate how Jesus Christ bridges the gap that sin creates between God and man. The speaker should connect the video to the fact that Jesus Christ is "The Bridge".

Note: The speaker will call on the sharer. He/ she will share on his/her experience of God's immense love and how he/she responded to it.

Sin separates us from God. But because of the great love of God to us He chose to send His only Son to bridge the separation caused by sin. Christ is the fulfilment of God's love.

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.

(John 3:16)

III. Conclusion

This is how limitless the love of God to each and every one of us. As St. Augustine has said “God loves every one of us as if there was but one of us to love.” God has a seemingly insane love for us; a love that would suffer even death on a cross. Even if you were the only one who needed to be saved, God would do it all for you. Let us respond to this love. Let us decide to love God back.

Note: One way to challenge the participants to respond to God’s love is by telling them to seek God during the Youth Camp and to participate in all activities. End with a prayer and a slow song that speaks about God’s love.

IV. Group Discussion

1. Share an experience in your life where you felt most loved by God? How did you feel?
2. How can you respond to God’s love for you? (Make specific resolutions)

Expanded Outline

I. Introduction

In the first talk, we have heard that the greatest expression of God's love is Jesus Christ. Now, who is Jesus Christ? What role does He play in our lives? When we realize how great God's love for us is, many of us genuinely want to respond to Him by loving Him back and living a life that is pleasing to Him.

However, it is very difficult to live a life that is pleasing to God, if we lack an essential aspect, a personal relationship with His Son. Living a Christian life by our own strength is impossible. Only the strength we have in Jesus Christ can allow us to do it.

II. Who is Jesus Christ?

Note: It is not necessary for the speaker to enumerate on the following points, especially when there is time constraint. The speaker may just pick some points and expound on it.

A. Jesus and Impact on History

- He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary
- Born some 2,000 years ago in the town of Bethlehem, Judea; in the poor country of Palestine.
- Grew up in a poor family of carpenters.
- During His 3 years of public life, He challenged the authorities and was tried on charges of rebellion and blasphemy. He was put to death at the age of 33.
- He split History in two (B.C. - Before Christ, and A.D. Anno Domini or Year of our Lord).
- No other person has had as many books and stories written about him. The book that tells His story, the Bible, has been the No. 1 bestseller, of all time.
- Until today, Jesus of Nazareth is the most controversial, most popular, most revered and most respected person that ever lived.

B. Jesus as He claimed to be

He took upon Himself qualities that belonged only to the person of God.

a. He was pre-existent with the Father.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came to be through him, and without him nothing came to be. (John 1:1-3)

The Greek of 'word' is logos, meaning any kind of communication. It could be translated to "message." It means Christ because Christ was the way God told people about himself.

b. He claimed to possess all authority in Heaven and on Earth.

Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. (Matthew 28:18)

This is the characteristic that only one person can claim to have – God. Nature seemed to believe Jesus and recognize this authority. When He was in a boat with His disciples, a strong wind blew and filled the boat with water. His disciples were afraid and woke him. Jesus gave a command to the wind and the waves, they stopped, and it became calm (cf. Luke 8:22-26).

c. He forgave sins

The people during Jesus' time strongly believed that only God had the authority to forgive sins. (Luke 5:21)

After Jesus healed the paralyzed man by declaring to him that his sins were forgiven, the scribes and the Pharisees questioned Jesus authority to forgive sins. But Jesus rebuked them and said, "'What are you thinking in your hearts? Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Rise and walk'? But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" - he said to the man who was paralyzed, "I say to you, rise, pick up your stretcher, and go home." (cf. Luke 5:22-24).

d. He performed miracles

Jesus healed the sick (He made the blind see), fed the hungry (fed five thousand people) and raised the dead (raised Lazarus to life).

C. Jesus – A personal God

For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin. (Hebrews 4:15)

Jesus being God is an awesome truth. We can be sure that He is stronger than all of our biggest fears. But what is even more astonishing truth is that Jesus, despite being God, is not a distant God. He felt the things we feel every day. He can relate to us, perfectly. He is closer to us than you think. He is the same as us in all things except sin.

Note: It is not necessary for the speaker to expound on the following examples further, especially when there is time constraint. The speaker may just enumerate these events in Jesus Christ's life where He was completely human (feeling pain, thirst, sadness, etc.) to establish the point that Jesus also felt how we feel and that He understands us completely.

- Like us, He also became tired (cf. John 4:6). Jesus sat on a well because He was tired from His long trip from Judea to Galilee.
- Like us, He also got thirsty (cf. John 19:28). Jesus felt his mouth and throat dry from hanging on the cross for six hours.
- Like us, He also wept (cf. John 11:35). When His friend Lazarus died, Jesus wept for the loss of a loved one.
- Like some of us, He also felt alone (cf. Matthew 26:40). His apostles fell asleep while Jesus was praying in the Garden of Gethsemane. It was a crucial time for Him because it is the last minute before He will be arrested. But in this important time of His life, the apostles slept when Jesus asked them to pray for Him.
- Like some of us, He was also misunderstood (cf. John 8:27). When Jesus was describing where He was going before His death, people did not understand.
- Like some of us, He also felt stressed (cf. Matthew 14:13). Upon hearing the news that John Baptist had died, Jesus went to a lonely place but a large crowd followed Him. He felt sorry for them and healed their sick. The demands of the people overtook his need to grieve.

- Like some of us, He was also named names (cf. Matthew 12:24). When Jesus drove out a demon from a man who could not talk and see, the Pharisees said He used the power of the ruler of demons to force demons out.
- Like some of us, He was also betrayed (cf. Mark 14:10). Judas sold Jesus to the Pharisees.
- Like some of us, His friends also denied Him (Luke 22:60). When Peter was following Jesus during the trial, He denied Jesus three times as Jesus had predicted.

Jesus felt how we felt. He experienced all these things to tell us that He completely understands us. He is a God that can relate to our sorrow, shame, sickness, and pain. He is a God that is strong enough to trust and near enough to call unto. He can be a friend, a brother, a friend, a counsellor, a healer etc.

III. Our Response

All the claims that Jesus Christ made concerning Himself are so great that we need to stop and seriously consider these. Our acceptance or rejection of these claims will greatly affect us.

- A. If we reject all the claims that Jesus made and believe them to be false, then we should just forget Christianity altogether and even correct the great hoax that has deceived people for 2000 years.
- B. But if deep down we accept all Jesus' claims and believe them to be true, then we really cannot ignore Him like most people do in their lives.

We must find a way to relate to Jesus as the Mighty God and as the risen Savior that He really is. We will have to follow Him as Lord and accept that personal relationship He offers us today.

IV. Who is Jesus Christ to Me?

Note: The speaker will now call on the sharer. He/she will share why he/she accepted Jesus invitation and how it changes him/her. After the sharer the speaker will also give personal testimony of who is Jesus Christ.

V. Conclusion

Note: The speaker will show again the flashcards used in the game earlier. However, the taglines will no longer be used to describe the brands that they represent; instead, they will be used to describe Jesus Christ. (e.g: Jesus is like Rexona... He never lets you down etc.)

This will further strengthen or enhance what had been discussed in Session 2, in relation to Jesus Christ being a personal God.

God loves you. That is pretty good news, but it gets even better. Not only does He love you, but He wants to have a friendship with you. (John 15: 13-15) The friendship that Jesus offers to everyone is special because He is willing to give one's life for a friend.

Think about it. Jesus Christ wants to have a personal relationship with you. He already knows you, and He wants you to know Him.

VI. Group Discussion

1. How would you describe your relationship with Jesus Christ now?
2. Who is Jesus Christ to you? What can you do to respond to His invitation of having a personal relationship with Him?

Expanded Outline

I. Introduction

We have heard that Jesus Christ is all that He claimed; possessing all authority in Heaven and Earth, a powerful God who performs miracles and forgives sins. But besides all claims, we see that He is also a personal God. We have heard how He understands us deeply and how He is closer to us than we think. We learned that He himself invites us into a personal relationship with Him. In this session, we will learn how we can respond to His love and invitation.

II. Repentance and Faith

*"The right time has come and the Kingdom of God is near! Turn away from your sins and believe in the Gospel."
(Mark 1:15)*

Jesus Christ began His preaching ministry with these words, or repent and have faith. He used these words because repentance and faith are the first steps we need to take to truly respond to God's love and His invitation for us.

A. Repentance

Sinfulness in our lives and the hurts we have experienced are hindrances in coming to Jesus Christ and receiving His spirit. This is the reason why He called those who came to Him to repentance.

a. What is Repentance?

- The Greek word for repentance is 'metanoia', which literally means a change of mind.
- An act of the will; a decision

Hence, Repentance is a decision to turn away from sin and look towards God.

B. Misconceptions about Repentance

You are repentant only when you:

a. Feel terrible about yourself

Some people believe that repentance is sincere only when you despise yourself because you are a hopeless sinner.

b. Feel regret

Sometimes repentance is brought about due to the negative consequences of what was done and the regret that comes after, not because the sin was evil. (Feeling sorry you were caught cheating in an exam. If you weren't caught you wouldn't have been as sorry).

c. Get rid of all tendency to sin

Some people think that true repentance can only happen when we are able to rid ourselves of the tendency to sin. But that will never happen. What we can do, however, is to say no to temptation.

This is also the reason why many Catholics do not go to Confession, saying, "Why will I confess when I'm just going to sin again?"

All of these may be effects of Repentance but are not repentance. All these focus on feelings; Repentance is much more objective and concrete than feelings.

C. Some sins to repent from:

- Rebelliousness: to parents, authorities, and society, such as answering back, vandalism etc.
- Cheating, lying, stealing, cursing, green jokes, slander, and gossip.
- Abuse of alcohol, using illegal drugs.
- Sexual sins: necking, petting, pornography, masturbation, homosexual acts, etc.
- Horoscope, superstition, spiritualism, non-Christian religions.

Note: Give examples that are appropriate to the Participants. The speaker should be able to explain why these sins are wrong. These sins have been so widely accepted that people do not see them as immoral anymore.

The speaker must also be able share how to turn away from these sins and he must be able to make the Participants realize that what is important is for them not to feel terrible about themselves for past sins, but for them to decide to turn away from these sins.

D. What must we do to repent? (4 H: Attitudes to take in repentance)

- a. Honesty. Call sin a sin. (Some say sin is a growth experience or that cheating during exams is sharing)
- b. Humility. Admit you fell into sin because you are weak and that you need God to overcome your sins.
- c. Hate the sin; not the sinner. If you hate sin you'll stay away from it and you won't make any justifications for doing it ("I am just human" or "somebody else made me do it").
- d. Have a good confession. Go to confession and ask God for forgiveness. Confession allows us to be humble, showing God that we need Him.

E. Faith

We need to place our faith and trust in Jesus Christ, believing that when we come to Him in repentance, He will conquer all our sinfulness and that He will forgive us and heal us of our sins.

Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen.

(Hebrews 11:1)

The kind of faith that we are talking about is primarily shown in Matthew 14:22-33.

I. Faith that believes in what God said.

When Jesus Christ told Peter that he could walk on the water, although he knew it was humanly impossible, he still believed. In the same way, when Jesus Christ promises that He will save us from our sins, we should believe that He can and He will.

The same kind of faith is also seen in Matthew 8:5-13. When a Roman Officer approached Jesus Christ and told Him that his servant was lying at home paralyzed and suffering dreadfully, Jesus Christ said that He would come to his house to cure his servant. At this, the Roman Officer expressed humility saying, "Lord, I am not worthy to have you enter under my roof; only say the word and my servant will be healed." The Roman Officer, who has the authority to command a hundred men, expressed faith in the power of Jesus' mere word. Jesus said to him, "You may go; as you have believed, let it be done for you."

II. Faith is more than mere feelings.

Faith is taking action because faith without action is dead. Peter acted in spite of fear. He was scared of drowning, and yet he still took the first step out the boat. He believed in what Jesus Christ said that faith is not a feeling but rather a decision that we should make. Faith is deciding to put our trust in Jesus Christ.

The same kind of faith is also seen in Mark 5:25-34. A woman afflicted with hemorrhages (large discharge of blood) for twelve years had heard about Jesus Christ and came to see Him. She said, "If I can just touch his clothes, I will be healed." Then, she touched Jesus' cloak. Jesus affirmed her act of faith afterwards when He said "Dear woman, you are made well because you believed. Go in peace; be healed of your disease." The woman acted on her faith by touching Jesus Christ's clothes.

Faith is not just a feeling; our actions are the greatest expression of faith.

Note: Repentance and Faith go together. We cannot have one without the other.

III. Forgiveness and Healing

A. Forgiveness

In the Parable of the Unforgiving Servant found in Matthew 18:21-35, it is said that the kingdom once had a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants. We are the servants in the story. We have debts to the king who is God in the form of our sins. The parable tells us:

1. God is a forgiving God. He forgives those who confess their sins and genuinely ask for forgiveness (cf. Matthew 18:26).
2. God is a compassionate and kind God. He is willing to forgive us even if we cannot repay for our sins (cf. Matthew 18:25-27).

We are also being asked to forgive those who have sinned against us.

1. What Christ demands from us is limitless forgiveness (cf. Matthew 18:22).
2. We have received the great forgiveness of God; therefore, we must not refuse to forgive others (cf. Matthew 18:28-30).
3. Whom must we forgive?
 - a. Our self
 - b. Our parents, brothers or sisters, relatives
 - c. Our friends, schoolmates, teachers
 - d. Others

And when God forgives us, He never makes any record of our wrong doings, He sees us as new creations. He will cleanse us and heal us from all the wrongs we have done. (1 John 1:9).

B. Healing

We all know that Jesus Christ is a great healer. He cured many illnesses and diseases during His ministry here on Earth. Up to now, He still heals people. He heals us from our sinfulness and our hurts from our past experiences. Jesus Christ fully understands that we need healing from our sinfulness and hurts because these are obstacles from totally receiving God's grace.

1. Healing Occurs:

- a. When we humbly approach God for healing (cf. Matthew 8:5-6, Mark 5:27).
- b. When we put our faith in Him (cf. Matthew 8:8, Mark 5:28).
- c. When we ask for forgiveness – because God forgave our sins, we also learn how to show great love for others (cf. Luke 7:47).
- d. When we forgive – when we forgive others, we gain inner peace, we thus gain inner healing.
- e. When we serve others – when we focus on helping others “heal” instead of focusing on ourselves.

2. Healing through Forgiveness

- a. Healing will not be complete if we haven't forgiven ourselves and those who have hurt us.
- b. Share how hurts in the different areas of our life listed below can hinder us from drawing near to God, and how forgiveness begins the process of healing.
 - One's own self
 - Our parents and family
 - Our friends and classmates

Forgiveness and healing also go together; we cannot have one without the other.

Note: The speaker may call on 1-2 sharers at this point to share about Repentance, Faith, Forgiveness or Healing.

IV. Conclusion

God wants us to experience the fullness of life in His love, by knowing Him personally. However, our sins and hurts block much of His blessings for us.

Jesus Christ wants to remove these hindrances and extend His mercy towards us, but we have to do our part and repent from these sins. We need to believe that He will forgive and strengthen us and bring us healing. Only then can we fully receive God's blessing, His Holy Spirit which strengthens us and allows us to live lives truly pleasing to God.

V. Activity

Requirements: Pens, pieces of paper and Priest(s) for confession

Instructions

After the session, on the piece of paper provided, ask the participants to list down all their sins and all the people they have hurt, or have hurt them in any way. Then, the team leader leads them to a short prayer; asking God for forgiveness for the sins they have committed and healing for all the hurts they have. The team leader must mention in the prayer that the participants are letting go of these things that they have written down and are lifting these up to God. This symbolizes the rejection of all the sins they have written, and their closure from all the hurts they hold from other people. The participants are then asked to throw away the piece of paper into a trash bin placed in front of the session hall. Keep the activity simple. There is no need for any dramatic effect.

However, it is important to emphasize to the participants that real forgiveness from God for the sins they have committed can only be attained through confession. Thus, after the activity, the participants are then asked to go to confession. Only in extreme cases where there are no priests available, the speaker must encourage the participants to still have confession after the Youth Camp.

Note: After the participants have confessed, they are asked to write a letter for their parents. The facilitators must encourage the participants to express in the letter how much they really love their parents and to ask forgiveness for any hurts that they may have caused them.

3. Worship in the Spirit.

Expanded Outline

I. Introduction

If you compare the Christians of today with the early Christians, you will find that they were very much different.

A. Christians today

Christians today can't seem to live as they should; they seem weak and they lack conviction. (Give examples / illustrate) However, Christians were not always like that.

B. Christians before

The Christians in the early Church possessed certain strength and boldness of character. They had this power that attracted many from all races and walks of life to join this group of mere fishermen, slaves, Gentiles and Jews.

What was this power that transformed 12 insignificant men and their brethren into the pillars that established Christendom? It was not human might or intellect, but it was the Power of the Holy Spirit; the same Spirit that continues to fill and transform the lives of so many Christians today. Do you want to be like the early Christians and make a difference?

II. The Power of the Holy Spirit

A. Misconceptions

- The Holy Spirit is just God's messenger.
- The Holy Spirit is just the dove in Jesus Christ's baptism.
- There is no such thing as a Holy Spirit; there's only God.

B. The Holy Spirit is God; the 3rd Person in the Holy Trinity.

C. God's promised spirit

- A new heart and a new spirit (cf. Ezekiel 36:26-27)

God promised a spirit that will enable all men to follow Him. He promised to give men "A new heart and a new Spirit..."

- God's Spirit brings about
The Valley of the Dry Bones (Ezekiel 37:1-14)

This story illustrates to us what the power of His Holy Spirit can do.

1. Union with God

When we receive the power of the Holy Spirit, we begin a personal and intimate relationship with God. God's word becomes alive in us as we read scripture. We hear Him speaking to us in our hearts and we experience Him touching our very lives.

2. A new nature (cf. Galatians 5:22-23)

As we grow in our personal relationship with God, He slowly molds us into His likeness, removing the selfishness in our hearts, making us more loving, more like Jesus.

3. Power to serve (cf. Acts 1:8)

God's Spirit empowers us to serve, giving us the boldness to speak His words and making us willing to face the challenge of bringing others closer to Him despite the many difficulties and trials we may face.

Note: In sharing the 3 points above, the speaker should share his own experiences of these 3 points.

III. How do we receive the Power of the Holy Spirit?

A. The Coming of the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:1-8)

Note: The speaker must narrate this passage in his own words

Praying for the Baptism of the Holy Spirit may not be exactly like this event, but we can take certain points from it to help and guide us in receiving the Baptism of the Holy Spirit.

a. We ask. (Luke 11:9-10) In faith, we know that when we ask for it, it will be given to us. What do we specifically ask for?

i. A personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

ii. Spiritual Gifts (1 Corinthians 12:4-11) These are gifts that God gives to help us in our Christian lives:

- Prophecy
- Healing
- Wisdom
- Knowledge

- Miracles
- Faith
- Discernment
- Praying in Tongues
- Interpretation of Tongues

Note: The speaker must briefly explain each Spiritual Gift. This explanation does not need to be detailed as the facilitators should have already explained it to the participants during their one to ones.

- iii. Explanation of the Gift of Tongues: It is a gift of prayer - It is a prayer that only God can understand and only we can speak. Because of this spiritual gift, one's soul is able to communicate what it really wants to express to God.

This spiritual gift pleases God. We humble ourselves when we pray in a language we don't understand. This total humility pleases God.

The gift of tongues becomes a doorway to the other spiritual gifts. It allows us to access and use them in a better manner.

Note: The speaker must state that all the spiritual gifts are important and must not highlight too much on the gift of Tongues.

- b. We have Faith. (Luke 11:13) We should believe that when we ask for the Holy Spirit, He will surely give it.

- i. Hindrances to receiving the Holy Spirit.

- Unrepentant Attitude: "I am never wrong" Sin alienates us from God. When we refuse to be repentant for our sins, we keep ourselves from experiencing God and His Spirit. This is why we need to go to confession.
- Feeling of Unworthiness: "Am I worthy?" Everyone is unworthy, what the Lord requires is simply a humble spirit that approaches Him in repentance and asks for forgiveness.
- Pride: "I am too cool for this?" Pride keeps us from acknowledging our need for God, and asking Him into our lives, but God will keep on knocking until we're humble enough to ask Him in. If we're afraid of looking foolish, we must humble ourselves if we are to receive God's Spirit.
- Doubt: "Is this for real?" Focus on what is true. God promised His spirit and He never breaks His promises to His people.

IV. Conclusion

- A. Recall Ezekiel 37:1-14
- B. Living the Christian life is very difficult. But we have hope in God's promised Spirit. This Spirit is the one which strengthens us and gives us the gifts we need for us to live, as true sons and daughters of God.

Note: Our next activity will be the commitment ceremony and pray over session. The speaker must give the participants a general view of what they can expect.

V. Activity

A. Baptism of the Holy Spirit / Pray Over Session

Our purpose tonight is to ask the Lord for the power of His Holy Spirit that will enable us to live as true Christians. To do this, we will first have to come before our Lord, believe and accept Him as our personal Lord and Savior and commit our lives to Him. After this, we will pray with one another for the Baptism of the Holy Spirit.

1. This is not a new baptism. We were all baptized when we became Catholics. What we want to do now is to pray for one another so that we can immerse ourselves in God's Spirit and be empowered as Christians.
2. Explain the process of Baptism / Pray-over session.
 - a. First, we will be having a 'Commitment to Christ Ceremony' where you will be given the opportunity to decide for yourselves if you want to follow Jesus Christ.
 - b. After this, your discussion group leaders will approach you and bring you somewhere more conducive and private for the pray-over session.
 - c. Process of Praying-over:
 - Prayer of Thanksgiving: Your discussion group leaders will thank the Lord for the commitment that you just made.
 - Prayer of Deliverance: Casting out the works of Satan in your life. ("In the name of Jesus, spirit of deceit we cast you out".)
 - Prayer for the Baptism of the Holy Spirit / spiritual gifts.
3. After the Pray-over session.
 - a. Go back to your seat; we will end together once everyone has been prayed for.
 - b. We encourage you to continue to be in an atmosphere of prayer.

B. Final tips

1. Relax.

The pray over session, and your decision to follow the Lord, are very important, but don't let this make you anxious. Relax and be at peace, this will make it easier for you to open up to the Lord.

2. Do not expect a particular experience.

Expecting one particular type of experience might keep you from recognizing God's work in you. God knows you more than you know yourself. He knows exactly how He should touch you.

3. Don't analyze the sounds you make.

In speaking or praying in tongues, just focus on the Lord and praise Him. What comes out of your mouth and how you praise God is already up to Him.

4. Initiate.

God respects you, and will not force you to praise Him in tongues. You just have to try and initiate praying in a language you do not know, and then God will inspire you and give you the words to say.

For example, even if God has already inspired you to write a song, the song will never be heard unless you actually pick-up a guitar, play the tune and write the words. In the same way, you can only begin praying in tongues when you initiate it.

- Focus on God. Worship Him in your own words.
- Once you've run out of words to worship God, utter the first syllables that come into your mind and use this for worship.
- Focus on worshipping God and not the words you use to worship, then let God take control.

C. Commitment Ceremony

1. After the explanation, the speaker asks the participants to meditate about all the sessions, especially Session 4.
2. While the participants are meditating, a meditative song may be played (Lord I offer my life / God alone / Here I am Lord, Strong Arm)
3. After the song is sung, the speaker asks those who want to make a commitment to Christ to stand up. Then, the Prayer of Commitment will be recited together.

COMMITMENT TO CHRIST

Leader: Do you renounce Satan and all wrongdoing?

Participant: Yes, I do.

Leader: Do you believe that Jesus is the Son of God, that He died to free you from sins and that He rose from the dead to bring you new life?

Participant: Yes, I do.

Leader: Do you choose to follow Jesus as your Lord, to love Him, honor Him and obey Him?

Participant: Yes, I will.

PRAYER OF COMMITMENT

(Ask participants to repeat after you.)

Lord Jesus Christ, / I want to belong to you from now on. / I want to be free / from the dominion of darkness / and the rule of Satan, / and I want to enter into your kingdom / and be part of your people. / I will turn away from all wrong doing, / and I will avoid everything / that leads me to wrongdoing. / I ask you to forgive / all the sins that I have committed / I offer my life to you, / and I promise to obey you as my Lord.

Note: Everyone is then asked to be seated and wait for their turn to be prayed over.

D. Pray Over Session

VI. Worship

Note: Worship leader must be different from the speaker.

How great our God is. Our experience in this camp is all about God loving us immensely. Now, our response is to love him back through praises and thanksgiving. This calls for a celebration of God's love. We are to worship him.

A. What is Worship?

Worship is being able to come into the loving, healing and mighty presence of God and being able to acknowledge that HE ALONE IS GOD – loving, healing and mighty! Worship is not about us it is all about Him.

B. How do we worship?

Come before God's presence focusing on Him alone. We sing praises and thanksgiving to the Lord. Saint Augustine once said, "He who sings, prays twice." First, we utter all our praises to Him spontaneously. Then we sing songs of praise and worship to God. After doing these, we sing in the spirit and pray in tongues. Afterwards, we voice out our prayers to Him by following A.C.T.S. flow of prayer-Adoration, Contrition, Thanksgiving and Supplication.

Feel free to raise your hands, jump, sing aloud, dance pleasing and glorifying the Lord. Cite examples like worship is just like a concert or serenade for God.

"Let's all praise and worship our God."

Note: The Line-up of worship songs should include three songs only - two fast and one slow. Remember that it will be the participants' first worship, it should not take long.

VII. Closing Exhortation

But you will receive power when the holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

(Acts 1:8)

A. Different people different experiences.

Some may have prayed in tongues, cried or simply felt God's presence. Others may have had a very simple experience. The Holy Spirit comes to each of us differently.

An emotional experience is not an indication of God's Holy Spirit. Rather, focus on the fact, that you committed yourself to Jesus Christ and that is what is most important. If you did ask for His Spirit, whatever experience you had, He surely gave it to you.

B. Satan will tempt you to doubt.

He will never cease in trying to take away the treasure you have just received today.

C. Don't expect all your problems to go away.

Focus on the truth that you now you have God and through all your problems, He will always be there for you. Simply because He is always by your side, these problems will never overwhelm you.

D. Go easy on sharing with others what you have experienced.

All of these things were first explained to you before they were done. Do not expect your friends to understand you right away.

Try to explain what you went through in a very ordinary and understandable way. Better yet, share to them what you experienced by showing the change in you, as Jesus Christ begins to dwell at the center of your life.

E. Be faithful. Do not stifle the Spirit.

Like any gift, the gift you received tonight can be lost, so you must always use it. You committed to follow the Lord, be faithful to that decision. Have a daily prayer time where you can experience and get to know God. Your prayer time is when He can slowly but surely work in your life daily.

Note: Encourage the participants to be faithful in their commitment to the Lord. God has begun a powerful work in their lives today, He will always be faithful to us, and by His Holy Spirit we can be faithful to Him.

Expanded Outline

I. Introduction

We heard and did so many good things in this Youth Camp. First, we heard how great God's love is, and because of this love, we responded to His invitation for us to have a personal relationship with Him. Furthermore, we lifted all our sins and hurts to God, through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, as these are obstacles that hinder us from receiving God's grace. Last night, we even received His Holy Spirit. Everyone here, in one way or another, has experienced God's goodness this weekend. Now, after all these, when we go back to our homes and schools, what is in store for us?

In this session, we would like to share with you how best to sustain our renewed relationship with God.

II. How can we grow as Sons and Daughters of God?

We know, undoubtedly now more than ever, that God's love for us is great; that His Holy Spirit is real and that He is truly within us. God is truly great and all His plans for us are really for our own good.

However, when we leave this venue, what is in store for us, after the Youth Camp? What will happen once we go back and be with our old friends and classmates? Most of them will certainly not understand what we have gone through this weekend. They might even brand us as weird, when we share to them our experiences in this Youth Camp.

Because of these reasons, it is very important for our hearts to take on the right posture.

A. Posture of our Hearts:

1. We have God's gift of salvation. (Eph 2:8)

When we leave this place, we should be convicted that what we experienced was truly a gift from God for our salvation. The way to God through Jesus is the only way and we should resist any idea that tells us otherwise.

2. We have God's Spirit. (Acts 1:8)

We now have God's Spirit within us; to strengthen, protect and help us overcome all obstacles that may hinder us to grow more as men and women of God.

3. We need to grow in our Life in the Spirit. (James 1:23)

We must do our part in order for us to grow in our relationship with God. Everything we have heard in this Youth Camp will be of no help to us, unless we start practicing it in our own personal lives. Hence, we need to invest time and effort for our spiritual growth

B. Tools for Christian Growth: The Five Spokes

In MFC Youth, we have the different tools needed for Christian spiritual growth. All of these tools are available for us and would help us nurture the graces we have received and will allow us to receive so much more.

Note: You can illustrate this portion by relating the tools for Christian growth to the four spokes of a wheel. The wheel's outer rim represents our Christian life, which draws power from the hub or center of the wheel; which in turn represents Jesus Christ. The power is transmitted through the five spokes of the wheel. If any one of the five spokes is missing, the wheel will not function properly.

1. Prayer of Scriptures

We need to spend time with God in prayer and we need to read scriptures for us to grow in our relationship with Him.

a. Steps to take:

- Decide on having prayer time of at least 15 minutes a day.
- Decide on a specific time of the day and keep it sacred.
- Find a place where you will not be disturbed or distracted.

- Choose a flow you are comfortable with.
- b. ACTS: Adoration, Contrition, Thanksgiving, and Supplication.
- c. Read the Bible readings for the day
- d. Use daily prayer journals, devotionals and reflection guides
- e. Praying the Rosary

In our Catholic faith, the intercession of Mother Mary is a very powerful tool. Devotion to Mother Mary is an essential part of what we believe in. As Catholics, we need to pray the Rosary every day.

2. Study

It is important that we study our faith. We should be familiar with it and know it by heart.

a. Studying the Bible.

It is important that we read the bible daily as part of our prayer time. In that way we understand the Word of God.

b. Reading YouCat, Christian Books, Magazines and Websites

By reading the YouCat (Youth Catechism) we can understand better our faith. Reading Christian books, magazines and websites is also important because we can draw on new insights and learn new things about God through other people's personal experiences and reflections.

3. Fellowship

Fellowship refers to everything that MGC Youth members do together. It is being one as brothers and sisters in Christ through fun and friendship.

a. Fellowship is important to us.

It is in our nature to enjoy the company of people our age. It is for this reason that teenagers have their own groups in the neighborhood, and fraternities and sororities in school. For young people like us, we feel the need to belong. Oftentimes, this leads to peer pressure, which could be either positive or negative.

b. MFC Youth provides a real environment where genuine friendship can happen.

Here is where we'll meet true friends who will accept us for who we are and be loyal to us. In MFC Youth, we can experience positive peer pressure, with friends encouraging us to live our lives according to God's plan.

MFC Youth is a venue where building strong bonds of friendship and brotherhood are considered as important goals of its activities like Parties, Household Meetings, Assemblies, Conferences and Mission Trips.

4. Service

Young people are endowed with a lot of gifts and talents that oftentimes are not utilized productively, especially in serving God. We believe that with God as motivation, young people, like us, will be able to share their gifts and talents in serving God and others.

Ways we can serve:

- a. We serve God by the way we live. We give witness to our faith in Jesus Christ; by the way we live our lives (cf. James 2:14-17). Be aware of opportunities to share your faith, either through words or actions, to your family, friends, neighbors, and classmates.
- b. We serve God by fulfilling the responsibilities He gave us in our life; as sons and daughters, as brothers and sisters, as students, etc.
- c. We serve God by making our resources and ourselves available for His work. MFC Youth is an evangelistic and missionary community of young adults. Our mission is to bring God to other teenagers. By doing this, we develop a sense of mission. We share our time, talent and treasure to make a real effort to serve God through whatever service; as speakers, facilitators, music ministry etc.

5. Sacraments

We should be aware that another important tool that will enhance our Christian growth is to participate in the sacraments of the Church. This includes attending Mass on Sundays, having a regular Confession, and receiving Holy Communion.

In addition, we will also grow in our relationship with God if we serve actively in our parishes as lectors, sacristans, or as part of the choir.

III. Conclusion

God calls us to live a life that is pleasing to Him. He loved us first and He even died for us. He even gave us His Holy Spirit. But more than all these things, God gives us tools for us to grow in our relationship with Him. Now, the ball is in our hands.

We're not saying that after going through this Youth Camp, we'll be living perfect Christian lives. Chances are, we'll probably still fail, but it's our decision to stand up again and that is what's important. God died for us. Now it's time that we live for Him.

IV. Activity

Dedication Ceremony

Note: Either the team leader, or the speaker may conduct the Dedication Ceremony. This segment is done immediately after the 'Growing in the Spirit' session is given.

As we end our camp today and as we leave this place our prayer is that we will be convicted to live a good Christian lifestyle. Yet I believe that we can never be able to do it alone because:

1. Christian Life is not easy

We need an environment that will support us (Mt 13:4-9). Just like the seeds in the Parable of the Sower, MFC Youth provides fertile soil that we can grow in and where we can develop further as God's sons and daughters. MFC Youth will provide that environment. The service team is proof that MFC Youth provides such an environment.

2. Christian Life is Purpose Driven

We need a community with a vision, mission and purpose! Christians endure many persecutions and go the extra mile in bringing people closer to God simply because they know where they want to, how they are going to get there and why they want to go there.

MFC Youth is Catholic youth ministry driven by a vision, mission, and purpose:

Vision: A Catholic youth ministry Empowered by the Holy Spirit to Renew the Face of the Earth.

Mission: Make all youth know Christ

Purpose: We exist to form the youth to HONOR God, EMPOWER them to ACT in service to the Church as they RELATE with their family and community, and to TESTIFY God's love.

3. Christian Life is a Commitment

- a. Read to the participants the MFC Youth Covenant.
 - b. Explain briefly to the participants what the MFC Youth Covenant is all about.
 - c. Ask the participants to reflect upon this covenant and if they want to make it their covenant as well ask them to stand up as a sign of commitment to the MFC Youth Covenant
 - d. Pray over the participants and in a prayerful mood ask them to write one concrete action they will do to live out their covenant.
4. Some participants may be discouraged to join MFC Youth upon hearing the MFC Youth Covenant.

- a. Make it clear to them that the MFC Youth Covenant is simply a goal we all strive for.
- b. Accepting the MFC Youth Covenant simply means that we will support one another in striving for this goal.

MFC Youth Covenant

1. I shall live as a follower of Christ.
 - Pray and read the Bible daily.
 - Strive for holiness and Christian perfection.
2. I dedicate myself to the task of building a strong family for Christ.
 - Invest myself in time and effort for home and family.
 - Live out and defend the culture of life.
3. I shall be a committed and active member of Missionary Families of Christ – Youth.
 - Faithfully attend meetings and participate in official activities.
 - Give generously of my time and finances for the furtherance of our mission.
 - Undergo all formation courses and participate in community events.
 - Relate in love, loyalty and respect with all members of the MFC family.
4. I shall be a witness to the world of God's love.
 - Actively evangelize and do mission.
 - Love and serve my parish.
 - Love and care for the poor.

Dialogue with Parents

1. After the Dedication Ceremony, the team leader distributes the letter from the parents to the participants.
2. The couple coordinator meanwhile welcomes and entertains the parents of the participants.
3. The team leader presents the participants to their parents and asks them to spend half an hour together.

Note: Ask them to begin the dialogue by giving and reading to each other the letters that they had prepared for one another. Ask them to return for the Holy Mass.

Parent and Child Prayer

1. After the Dialogue with Parents, the team leader explains the following to the parents of the participants: "Your children have just made their commitment to live a Christian Life. To effectively support them in this, we must seek to remove all those hindrances that keep you apart; hindrances such as hurts and resentments at home."
2. Then the team leader asks the parents to go to their children and pray over them using this prayer, which the speaker will read.

Note: You may ask the parents to first say their own prayers for their children and then recite the prayer below. The MFC Youth couple coordinators should lead the prayer.

Prayer for Children

God has given you to me,/(name of child) / as a gift/ to love and to guide./ I wish all good things for you./ Forgive me for any hurts that I may have given you./ As I forgive you/ of the hurts you may have given me./ I now call upon you God's blessings./ May the Lord bless you and keep you./ May the Lord make His face shine upon you/ and be gracious unto you./ May the Lord lift up His countenance upon you/ and give you peace. Amen.

3. The children will now pray over their parents. The team leader explains the following to the participants: "The people who love you the most are your parents. In loving you, they may have committed mistakes along the way, even if they did not mean to. Quite often, these mistakes are the source of our resentments. Now, we will ask God to heal all these hurts between you and your parents."
4. Then the team leader asks the participants to pray over their parents using the prayer below. This time the team leader should lead the prayer.

Prayer for Parents

God has given you to me,/(Papa and Mama or Dad and Mom) / as my guides in His place/ here on earth./ I know that you love me / and in your love / you may have committed mistakes / that hurt me. / I forgive you for these./ I want you to know/ that I love you/ and ask for forgiveness/ for all the hurts/ I have given you./ May God bless you in everything you do./ This I pray / in the name of Jesus Christ/ my Lord and Savior./ Amen.

Note: Have an appropriate song played at this time.

Welcome Ceremony

1. The service team welcomes the participants to the MFC Youth family by going around and greeting all the participants.
2. Encourage the participants to share their experiences in the Youth Camp.
3. The team leader explains the following to the participants:

What's next?

The Youth Camp is not an end but just the beginning of our personal walk with the Lord. As we continue to nurture our new found relationship with God, MFC Youth will support us:

1. Through our committed relationships.

We have a responsibility to encourage and support one another. Thus, we make a commitment to grow together as Christian brothers and sisters.

Note: The proper MFC Youth Greeting is now introduced to the Participants

2. Through Households.

All MFC Youth members belong to smaller and more intimate groups that we call 'Households'. These Households regularly meet. At the end of this Youth Camp, you will be assigned to a Household.

Note: The Team Leader explains the purpose of Households.

3. Through our teachings and formation.

4. Through our activities in community.

Activities like, regular household meetings, monthly assemblies, parties, Lord's Day celebrations, family days, WYC, concerts etc.

B. Explain what will happened after the youth camp

The Youth Camp is not an end but just the beginning of our personal walk with the Lord. As we continue to help your children nurture their newfound relationship with God, we would like to ask for your support in achieving this by allowing your children to:

All MFC Youth members attends a monthly chapter assembly that give teachings to your children in living out their renewed conviction and love for God

By allowing them to attend official MFC Youth Activities your children can sustain and develop the friendships that they established during the Youth Camp. Hopefully, the positive experience of the Youth Camp will remain a special memory that your children may look back to and draw strength from throughout their lives.

C. Important reminders

1. It is important for all the parents to understand that the renewal process of their children doesn't end in the youth camp but a life-long process.
